

MONDAY

Learning from Reviews, 24 - 28 June 2024

Safeguarding children is complex and reliant on services working together. Ongoing development of knowledge, skills and confidence is essential for multi-agency professionals working with children and families. One key area for strengthening multi-agency practice lies in Learning from Reviews.

PERENNIAL CHALLENGES

National and local reviews often highlight recurring themes, known as 'perennial' challenges. These issues span case reviews and audits and include themes related to parent-oriented issues, young carers, family engagement, information sharing, and professional curiosity. Recognising, understanding, and addressing these challenges is crucial for effective multi-agency safeguarding practice.

SUPPORT FOR PRACTITIONERS

Understanding perennial challenges is essential, but true impact comes from applying learning to practice. HSCP today launches its Learning from Reviews Toolkit and accompanying Safeguarding Theme Overview Pack, to equip practitioners with the necessary information, training and tools to achieve this.

TAKE ME TO THE TOOLKIT

Why is Learning from Reviews important?

Kieran Lyons, HSCP LIG member & Sophie Butt, Chair, HSCP Scrutiny Group

Take some time to explore the resources to support practitioners with 'perennial' practice challenges, share with your colleagues and check out the Safeguarding Theme Overview Pack.